In Loving Memory of Letitia Ann West

Letitia Ann West was born in Seattle, WA, on November 11, 1963. She is the third of six children born to the union of Irving Sr. and Edna West. She attended Seattle Public Schools, growing up in the Mount Baker community. Letitia was known to many as "Tish." She was a natural-born leader, ruling the playground of her elementary school and acquiring many friends along the way. She was always there to protect, lend a helping hand, and help resolve any issues that may arise.

She loved to eat sour balls and ginger and lemon preserve; playing kickball and hanging with friends from the neighborhood were all staples of her childhood. Throughout her life, she applied her gifts of helping people to customer service and sales, obtaining many accolades, and earning awards along the way.

Tish loved to cook; she inherited her cooking skills from her mother. She would always ask, "Are you hungry, baby?" She also loved to do hair and created many "elixirs" to help your hair grow. When she was finished with your hair, it was a no-no to say, "Thank you." She commanded you to say, "More hair."

Tish cherished her family and friends and would do anything in the world for them. She gave her beloved ones a name of endearment, calling her oldest son "Suki my Buki." She loved all sports, was a diehard Seahawks fan, and loved anything pink.

She is preceded in death by her grandparents, Jessie and Marie Moore, and her mother, Edna West. Letitia leaves to honor her memory: children, Eunice Palmer III (Jeanine), Dejane West, Shiron Ciara West, and Cionte West; grandchildren, Eunice Palmer IV, Alora Palmer, Zalen West, and Aneres West; siblings, Clyde Wells Jr. (Katherine), Janice Bentley (Charles), Irving West Jr., Victoria West, and Geylar Locke (Phillip); a host of nephews and nieces; many other loving relatives; and longtime friends. The Family wishes to have a private Memorial service. Please feel free to join family and friends, at the repass on 5/4 from 2 PM - 4 PM .at Full Gospel Pentecostal 5071 Delridge Way SW, Seattle, WA 98106.

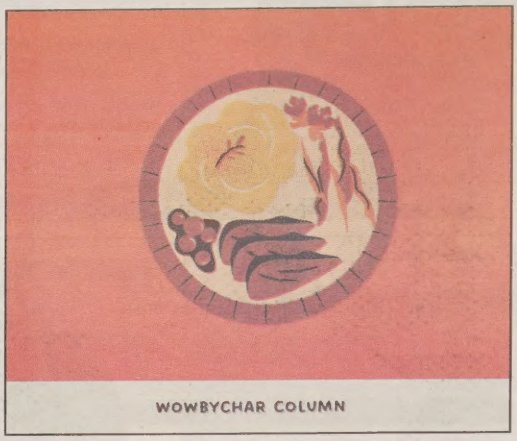
One Bite At A Time

Learn why it may be difficult to finish what you started

By Chardonnay Beaver

The fear of failure or lack of knowledge are reasons for why most individuals don't begin. Just because we know we should, doesn't mean we always perform to our fullest.



But, for the sake of this column, let's focus on the individuals who eagerly start and don't finish.

As a recovering perfectionist, procrastination has historically kept me from finishing what I started. The anticipation of reapproaching a matter can be daunting, at times.

However, one attitude that grounds me is simply remembering that if I don't do it, it won't get done.

One of the major reasons why we don't finish what we start is due to our approach. Consider a Thanksgiving meal. You have all your side dishes and main dishes on your plate. Your favorite dessert is on the stove cooling off. You're ready to dig-in and as you begin you get overwhelmed, realizing that your eyes were bigger than your stomach. You end up putting your left overs in to-go tupperware containers to nibble off the very meal you initially sought to enjoy while fresh.

This is an illustration of how most of us approach tasks. We couple all we need to accomplish into one day, striving to be overachievers. Perhaps, this is what causes us to have incomplete tasks and defeated attitudes.

The best approach is to deal with one dish at a time, one task at a time. I believe we'll never be blessed with more until we manage what we currently have.

Words of Wisdom by Char of The Week: Though this approach is encouraged, I also know that unforeseen events occur. In the end, you'll have to learn how to let go, and let God.

ROCK BOTTOM

So sometimes you have to hit rock bottom before you can get up to the top. In short, life is full of ups and downs and right now the Seattle Sounders are traversing through the downside of life in Major League Soccer. When I say the downside I mean ocean deep rock bottom. Last Saturday in a much-anticipated match Cascadia Rivals the Vancouver Whitecaps the Rave Green was embarrassed in a 2-0 loss. First a bit about the rivalry between the two teams: You see the Sounders and Whitecaps have played each other 152 times. The rivalry between the two teams goes back to 1974 when both teams played in the North American Soccer League. After Saturday's loss, the Sounders record against the Whitecaps is 17-10-9. More shocking Saturday's result was the first time the Whitecaps beat the Sounders in Seattle since 2016 in MLS play. As a result, the Sounders are 12th in the 13-team Western Conference with just one win four four losses, and three draws. To add insult to injury the Sounders had two players kicked out of Saturday's game because of reckless and dangerous challenges. A multitude of awful decisions led to self-inflicted mortal wounds. The Whitecap's two goals were a result of giveaways by the backline. For a team that has missed the playoffs just one year in its existence Saturday's loss was mortifying. For captain Stefan Frei the team must take ownership of the loss and quickly commit to getting better.

"I think when things are not working for you, you can either sit there and mope and find excuses or try to find another level. The easiest way to do that is to show up and work extra hard. Try to give it your all in everything that you do. I can't tell you we did this wrong and therefore we lost. But the way we can get out of it is trying to do your best, said Frei after the game. " And that starts on Tuesday, actually it starts now by trying to get away from [the game] and mentally recovering. But come Tuesday when you step on the field, when you get in the gym, when you do your recovery, when you do your hydration, your nutrition, can you do everything to the best of your ability? I believe that if we do, we have a really good locker room, we have really good players. '

So no doubt we will see what this team is made of next week when they travel east to play DC United and Philadelphia.

"But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.
But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.
For as in the days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark.
And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.
Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.
Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.
Watch therefore; for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.
Therfore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as you think not the Son of man cometh."

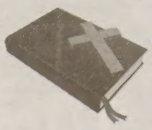
Bible Prophecy Now

By: Evangelist Clara Ann



The go-spel word from the Holy Bible is "GOD" Revelation 1:8. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last, which is and which was and which is to come. the Almighty. GOD-Genesis-Omega-Dominion. This word should be in all capital letters because GOD is the Supreme Being that made heaven and earth, the Holy One that has dominion over all things, and the GOD that lives forever. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit said unto the churches, to him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of GOD. The 7 Spirits of GOD. Be watchful and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die, for I have not found thy works perfect before GOD. Hurt not the earth, neither the sea nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our GOD in their foreheads. GOD shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. The mystery of GOD. The temple of GOD. Revelation chapter 11.

GOD caught up and prepared a place of salvation and war over the Devil in Revelation chapter 12. Patients of the saints keep the commandments of GOD and the faith of Jesus Christ. The wrath of GOD is going to be poured out over the earth of the ones that have the mark of the beast and abominations of the earth Revelation chapter 16-22. The Holy City, New Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from GOD, which giveth light in Revelation chapters 21 and 22.

The god with small letters stands for the generation of devils. These are the gods of the flesh, the idol gods, the little gods, and the gods of men who neither see, hear, smell, or have life. Revelation 2:13, 24; 3:9, 9:20-21. Revelation 12:9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent called the Deil and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world; he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. Revelation 16:14, 17:18, 18:2, 19:20, 20:2-10

Have you asked Jesus into your heart? Jesus loves you and desires to establish a personal relationship with you. Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If any man hears my voice and opens the door, I will come into him and will sup with him, and he with Me. Revelation 3:20. I am a messenger sent by Jesus Christ to write to all people, nations, languages, tribes, denominations, and cultures to turn to God (Rev. 21:3). And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the Tabernacle of GOD is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be his people. GOD himself shall be with them and be their God.
